Content Licensing Agreement

General information

The content license agreement is a limited and non-exclusive license for the publication and dissemination of scientific content from ESC Congress.

The opportunity allows sponsors to distribute content:

- via their own educational website or other communication channels
- for a duration of 12 months
- without geographic restrictions

Industry partners can also use videos, slides, abstracts etc. for educational purposes or even internal or external meetings. Distribution rights are acquired for worldwide dissemination on media such as websites, CDs, USB sticks, prints etc. (the content cannot be associated with product promotion). Content provided where speaker copyright has been granted to ESC only.
