European Association of Echocardiography

A Registered Branch of the ESC

The European Association of Echocardiography (EAE) allows companies in the cardiovascular field to organise scientific sessions as part of the EUROECHO Congress.

These so-called Satellite Symposia are allotted time slots during lunchtime breaks or in the evening after the pre-arranged programme sessions. The programmes are approved by the EAE.

For the Satellite Symposia, the use of the EAE logo (picture 1) together with the ESC logo (picture 2) and the EUROECHO 2007 logo (picture 3) are allowed for invitation flyers (paper as well as web format) and posters only.
